President's Message

Summertime, summertime...

Summer – oh how I love it! My favorite season.

So many great things happening in the next couple of months. The flowers are blooming, the birds singing, and vacation time for some. Cold weather wants us to stay at home, be cozy and sit by the fire, but summer is when we should be outside and drawing inspiration from nature. I see bright red blooms and I instantly think of Kaffe Fassett and his vibrant colored flowers. The blue sky and green grasses make me think of all the beautiful scenic quilts I see others make (not my strong suite). Fourth of July, ice cream cones, barbecues, parades, lemonade, what more could we want? Enjoy the summer and don't forget to sew.

Ardith Eakin

The July meeting should be lots of fun, and have you checked out the current list of classes? The August meeting will be something a little different from our usual topics and I am looking forward to it. There is always something new to learn and do. Happy Summer!

Ardith

Quilt wrangler needed

The Raffle Quilt is in need of a "quilt wrangler(s)". Nancy Graves has been the wrangler for several years and it is time for someone else to take over. This is a position that one person, several friends, or a friendship group could take on. It involves taking the quilt to several activities during the year, setting up, taking down, and recruiting members to work shifts. Please consider doing this as we need YOU! Send Ardith an email if you can help with this vital position.

July meeting brings a potluck and "strip poker"

We will be playing strip poker (with fabric strips!) at the July Guild Meeting, followed by a potluck. Winners at strip poker will have the option of taking their winnings home or donating them to the guild for the 2025 raffle quilt.

Please bring the following to the meeting:

- ◆ Five 2"xWOF strips of fabric* - any combination of
 - White or white-on-white (please no off-white)
 - Bright, saturated solids (or fabric that reads as a solid)
- * if you have 2.5" strips already, they are acceptable
- ◆ A dish to share
 - A salad
 - Unless you have a July birthday or your last name begins with a D - then bring dessert

2024 Raffle Quilt Introduced in June

The 2024 Raffle Quilt is Good Day Sunshine, made by Sew Scattered Stitchers, and quilted by Dana Pearson. Judy Deneen, Michele Boston, Janelle Domarotsky, Tina Foley, Judy Gelhaus, and Katie Harris are the Sew Scattered Stitchers. Tina made a baby quilt similar to the raffle quilt using the same fabrics and it was so stunning Judy D suggested we make a group project. It was so pretty that we decided to offer it for the raffle quilt. The pattern was Tina's own — she thought it up!

Quilts needed for next exhibit

Bring on the Hawaiian quilts, Seminole piecing, sashiko quilting, African fabrics, quilts with Celtic designs, any of the many kinds of quilting that represent the many cultures that make up our own. The next exhibit at White Bluffs Quilt Museum will be “Ethnic Influences”, and we’d like to see your quilts. If you can share a quilt for the exhibit, please contact Laurel Grove at lkgprs@hal-pc.org.

Next 5th Tuesday Sewcial features flat zipper bags -- August 29 --

Want to use up your batting scraps? Want to practice free-motion, walking foot, and/or ruler quilting? Please pre-quilt your pieces and then come to the next Fifth Tuesday Sewcial!

Your Guild community service arm has decided to share our resources and expertise with our friend and patron, Ginny Hildreth: we will meet at White Bluffs Quilt Museum on Tuesday August 29 from 1 to 7 to make flat zipper bags for the toiletries that go in the Santa Bags she donates every Christmas.

Linda Weir, whose prototype is pictured, will coach us in the zipper application. Prepare by pre-quilting a pair of quilted pieces for each bag; they can measure 8-12 inches wide by 8-12 inches long. Because she finds it difficult to free-motion near edges, Linda suggests quilting a larger piece, then cutting it down. You might also cut into old practice pieces or even old quilts. For fabric, you can raid the Scrap Table at Guild meetings or make an appointment to shop the Community Closet.

BRIEFS

Guest featured artist announced

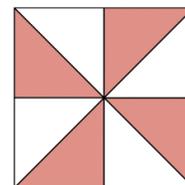

The Guest Featured Artist for the 2024 Quilt Show has been announced! Heather Black of Quiltachusetts will be doing the honors. Her works can be found at <https://quiltachusetts.com/>. You can catch her in an episode of The Quilt Show at <https://thequiltshow.com/watch/artists/b/heather-black>.

2025 raffle quilt intro

It’s already time to start the 2025 raffle quilt! You can help by donating fabrics or making blocks. Details on p9.

Newsletter news

The Board has decided we will no longer mail out printed newsletters. The general membership will continue to receive newsletters by email around the first of each odd-numbered month. Members who require a printed copy will be able to pick them up at the following Guild meeting.

2024 Quilt Show Challenge

- ORIGINS -

Origin definition: The point or place where something begins, arises, or is derived. The beginning, start, inception, foundation, base, root, pedigree, lineage, heritage, starting point, or ancestry.

Origin Challenge: Create a quilt depicting your origins. Considerations include:

- Where or when you are from
- Who or what influenced aspects of the person you are today
- Your cultural or ethnic background
- Your foundational beliefs

Rules:

- Must be a current TCQG member to enter
- Entries must reflect the theme of Origins
- Any shape, any fabric, any embellishment is allowed
- Maximum circumference of 200 inches, no minimum size
- All entries must be 3 layers held together by quilting or tying and have finished edges

Entries are due the week of March 4, 2024. Drop off locations TBA. Voting for winners will occur at the March 18, 2024 guild meeting and be displayed at the quilt show.

The May Flowers Sewcial was a big success!

Eight or ten folks showed up at the May Sewcial to make quilt tops from the green floral fabric. Leftovers cut from the corners of the blocks are also finding their way into quilt tops.

Sorry, none of us attending thought to get a photo of the happy sewists! But here are the two tops finished that day.

Community Service update and news

Prior to June's meeting there were only 79 quilts distributed. There were 29 quilts turned in at the June meeting. I have delivered a total of 108 quilts through June. I also want to remind you of the incentive to get the quilt bundles quilted. For each quilt bundle that you quilt you will get your name in a drawing. Although the first drawing is in July, there is still time to quilt bundles to get your name in the December drawing.

Although we don't want you to stop piecing quilt tops, we are focusing on getting the quilt bundles quilted. The following information demonstrates the reason why. There are 256 completed quilt tops in the community service pipeline. There are 111 tops that need backing and binding selected/sewn; 81 tops with backing and binding, ready for batting; 64 tops bundled with backing, binding and batting, waiting for a quilter. Thank you to those of you at the June meeting who took quilt bundles.

When turning in quilts/tops, please pin on a community service tracking tag, so we can acknowledge you. Tags are available at meetings and are downloadable from www.tcquilters.org.

I would like to thank the following who pieced quilt tops so far this year (no particular order): Debbie Trevino, Faye Notch, Roxie Ross, Jan Greenwell, Joan Lund, Linda Weir, Karen Windhausen, Sue Muller, Laurel Sutton, Karen Michaels, Laurie Gerber, Kitty Neill, Phyllis Burnham, Renee Grabiec, Leslie Peterson, Cindy Moon, Elaine Joyner, Cheryl Booth, Lucy Guyaz, Marie Lavey, Marion Dowell, Nancy Green, Shirley Lacey, Louise Peterson, Wilma Barton, Ardith Eakin, Layna Kinsman, Cindy Jewel, and Scrap Happens friendship group.

Lastly I also want to thank the following who quilted quilts: Ginny Coffman, Pat Evans, Nancy Green, Jan Greenwell, Jodi Hassell, Candy Crandall, Shirley Lacey, Judy Urrutia, Faye Notch, Linda Weir, Cheryl Booth, Karen Michaels, Elaine Joyner, Elaine Bacon, Cyndy Underwood, Leslie Peterson, Barb Ward, Sandy Moroney, Kitty Neill, Karen Brun, Ardith Eakin, Debbie Trevino, Roxie Ross, Wilma Barton, Dana Pearson, and Judy Gelhaus.

Notable CS Quilt

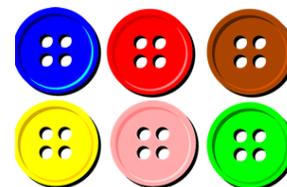

Several of us commented on this lovely quilt by Cheryl Booth, that beautifully uses the featured green floral Sewcial fabric.

The “Get Round Tuit” Declutter Challenge

The “Get Round Tuit” Declutter Challenge will help you declutter your sewing area one category at a time, one month at a time. Bring at least one item in that month’s category to either the AM or PM Guild Meeting and enter your name in a monthly drawing for a $5.00 gift certificate (and early access!) to the 2024 Round Tuit Room. Of course, we will accept any donation from the list below during any month, but items donated during the designated month will help us with the sorting process.

- ◆ Thru Feb Fabric (cotton, non-cotton, precuts, fat quarters, panels, scraps, etc.)
- ◆ July Embellishments/Notions (ribbon, buttons, beads, thread, bias binding, elastic, etc.)
- ◆ August Tools (scissors, rulers, cutting mats, rotary cutters, knitting needles, etc.)
- ◆ September Batting (batting scraps, foundation, fusibles, interfacing)
- ◆ October UFOs (kits, quilt tops, finished quilts)
- ◆ November Knitting & Crochet (yarn, thread, etc.)
- ◆ December Other Craft Supplies (stamps, paper crafts, plastic canvas, etc.)
- ◆ January Miscellaneous (working sewing machines, sergers, other?)
- ◆ February Storage (bins, baskets, organizers, etc.)

We will not accept non-working machines or magazines. If you, or someone you know, has a large donation, please text Elaine Brouillard at 509-551-2355 to make arrangements.

Plan now for Fall Retreat

This year’s Fall Retreat will be on Sept 19 -24, Tues – Sun. Registration will open on July 1st (at midnight!).

Come to Cove, OR and spend a week relaxing with your quilting friends. This is a great opportunity to finish up on a UFO (we all have them!) or to start a new project. 15 openings are available and are on a first come/first serve basis. The cost is $80/night (plus 4 meals $60). There are 11 rooms, two are ADA. Rooms have their own bath and at least two beds. Everyone will have a sewing table for their use. Ironing centers, irons, cutting tables and design walls will be provided. Please email or text Ginny Coffman if you would like to join in on the fun: Ginnycoff@gmail.com, 509 786 8953.

Upcoming Classes

Stained Glass with Bias Tape

Cheryl Garrison will show the class how to use bias tape to create a bordering effect around pieces of fabric to create the impression of stained glass. Students will create a project using pre-made bias tape; the class will also include information on how to create your own bias tape from fabric. Below is one of the class projects. Cheryl is working on other examples for students. Class will be Sun, July 16, 1-4pm at White Bluffs Quilt Museum. Please sign up by July 2. Look for the flyer on page 10.

Rope Bowl Class 2

The May rope bowl class was such a success that Dana Pearson has agreed to teach again. The next class will be on Sep 10, 1-4pm at White Bluffs Quilt Museum. Please sign up by Sept 3. Look for the flyer on page 11.

Payment options for classes

The guild has partnered with White Bluffs Quilt Museum to provide more options when signing up for guild classes taught by guild members at White Bluffs. Options to enroll and pay now include:

- at a guild meeting
- drop into the museum
- online on the White Bluffs website via credit card or PayPal (there will also be a link to White Bluffs with the class information on the guild webpage)

Checks should be made payable to White Bluffs Quilt Museum.

Fun at the May Rope Bowl class

Here are a couple of photos taken at the May Rope Bowl class:

Snapshots from Cheat Retreat

Here are some quick shots of the busy sewists who participated at the recent Cheat Retreat, June 4-5 at White Bluffs Quilt Museum.

And look at this clever use of the seams of jeans to make a rope bowl!

Other activities

Barn Block Painting taught by Sheila Sinclair Snyder on Saturday August 19 from 9 to 3; $70

Wear old clothes, follow directions, and have fun. Sheila brings all the supplies: she brings 2'x2' plywood pieces already sanded and prepped, paint, designs, tape; she'll collect $80 for materials at the class.

For all White Bluffs events, prepay when you sign up: register and pay online at www.whitebluffsqiltmuseum.org or register in person – Fri and Sat from 10 to 4; mornings (except Wed) from 10 to noon.

Summer classes are available at WBQM

Exhibit May through August: "Going Around in Quilting Circles"

Complementary classes

Winding Ways, Blooming Snowballs taught by Laurel Sutton on Sunday July 9 from 1 to 4; $36

Laurel Sutton will loan her templates if you don't have them and coach you on the curved piecing they involve. You will go home with one block of each design; you'll want to make more, because things can get very interesting when colors and fabrics are multiplied.

Denim Cathedral Windows Quilt taught by Ginny Coffman on Sunday July 16 from 1 to 4; $36

Ginny Coffman demonstrates the use of AccuCut® to produce the needed circles of denim, then teaches how to add squares of print fabric and join columns and rows.

Double Wedding Ring Quilt taught by Eddie Walker on Wednesday Aug 16 from 10 to 4; $40

Museum Quilts Featured in Bed-turning

The recent annual membership meeting of the Franklin County Historical Society and Museum included High Tea and a Bed-Turning featuring quilts from the White Bluffs Collection. The bed-turning was so well-received, members of White Bluffs are planning more events in the future!

TCQG 2025 Raffle Quilt

It's time to start the raffle quilt for the 2025, Make Your Point, by American Patchwork and Quilting designers. Our scrappy 78"x90" quilt will be done in whites and brights.

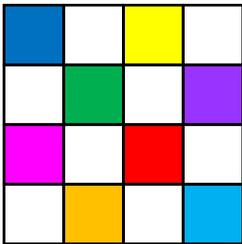

You can help with the 2025 raffle quilt. To get us started, you can:

- ◆ Donate fabric—2" or 4"xWOF strips of white or white-on-white
- ◆ Donate fabric—2" or 4"xWOF strips of bright, saturated colors
- ◆ Make a 16-patch, to finish 6" (6½" unfinished)
- ◆ Make a pinwheel, to finish 6" (6½" unfinished)

Fabrics should be good quality quilting cotton. If piecing blocks, please also use good quality cotton thread only—no polyester—and sew with an accurate ¼" seam allowance.

16-patch

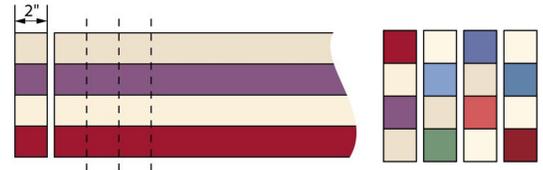

16-patch diagram

If making just one, you need:

- ◆ 8@2" squares white or white-on-white
- ◆ 8@2" squares bright, saturated colors. Think scrappy.

Arrange according to 16-patch diagram. Sew into rows; press toward bright. Sew rows together into a block; press in one direction. Staystitch

If making several blocks, start with 2"-wide strips. Make several strata of white-bright-white-bright; then subcut the strata into 2"-wide strips. Arrange according to 16-patch diagram. Assemble into a block; press in one direction. Staystitch.

Pinwheel

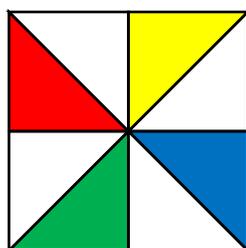

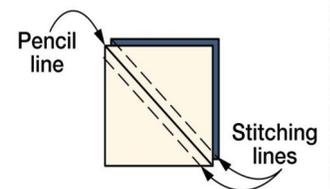

Pinwheel diagram

For each block you need*:

- ◆ 2@4" squares white or white-on-white
- ◆ 2@4" squares bright, saturated colors

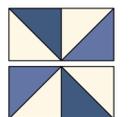

* One block will yield 2 brights at most. For a scrappier look, make 2 or more blocks, mixing up the colors in each.

On the wrong side of a white square, draw a light pencil line along the diagonal. Place RIGHT SIDES TOGETHER with a bright square. Sew ¼" away from both sides of line. Cut apart along line; press to bright.

Pinwheel diagram

Trim units to 3½" square. Arrange according to either Pinwheel diagram. Sew two units together; press to white. Sew pairs together. Undo ¼" of stitches within seam allowance of previous 2 seams so center points "twirl" and lay flat; press to white — or press open if you prefer. Staystitch.

More information on the quilt can be found at <https://www.allpeoplequilt.com/quilt-patterns/quilt-throws/make-your-point>

Turn fabric and blocks in to Karen Michaels.
