Quilt Care coming to November meeting

Quilts are more than several layers of fabric to keep someone warm or decorate a wall. They are works of art. Some are also family heirlooms. The quilts we treasure deserve to be well maintained. Ginny Coffman, the President of White Bluffs Quilt Museum, and Linda Weir, the lead for the museum's Preservation Committee, will talk at the November meeting about quilt labeling, storage, cleaning, and repair. They will also share information on some of the museum's efforts related to highlighting the museum's collection.

Annual business meeting in December

The December meetings will be at their usual date (Dec 18) and time, but will take place at the Richland Public Library, 955 Northgate Dr.

Please bring sweet or savory finger foods to share; beverages, plates, cutlery, etc., will be provided. We'll have the announcement of new officers, a mixer/game, and voting on next year's budget. Please plan to attend.

TCQG Decks the Walls of Gallery at the Park After Christmas

Again, Allied Arts has generously offered their space for our traditional biennial exhibition. Your friends and colleagues in the Make It Modern friendship group will be managing the registration, set-up, and take-down. Find the form on page 11.

Recently finished quilts are preferred; they can appear in our quilt show as well. Gallery goers are not our usual audience; our display always gives the community a snapshot of current trends in quilting. For example, Make It Modern plans to hang pieces from their group challenge -- 18" wide, based on triangles, using a bit of black, and incorporating some earmarks of modern quilting.

Your entries can be priced for sale; earnings from the Gallery's commission will ensure that they are able to offer us a rent-free month.

President's Message

Welcome All,

Fall is here, the holidays are rapidly approaching and are you ready? I always seem to have more and bigger plans than I can accomplish, but I always have something to look forward to doing. I am excited for the December Annual Meeting.

Ardith Eakin

The quilt show theme has me scratching my head and wondering what am I going to do? A little reflection on my life - I made a few quilts earlier in my adult life but for the most part it has been in the last ten years after I retired. Sewing has always been a part of my life, just not quilting. Yes, I still mend grudgingly, iron clothes often, and hurry and do it so that I can get back to quilting. I look around each month at all the lovelies during show and tell and think what have I accomplished this month? The words Origins and Traditions make me ponder.

Linda Weir has lined up some fantastic programs for us so don't miss out. Friendships and quilting are both very important to all of us.

Happy Quilting,
Ardith

Call for quilts for next WB exhibit

How do you identify your community? Historically, signature and album quilts, even Baltimore albums, were frequent "going away" reminders to pioneers of the communities they were leaving behind. More recently, signature quilts have been created to celebrate weddings and reunions. Albums are a special kind of collaboration that also remind us of our communities. The White Bluffs Quilt Museum's next exhibit will be "A Sense of Community", and we'd like to include quilts that represent your communities. If you can share, please contact Laurel Grove at lkqprs@hal-pc.org. The quilts are needed before the December holidays and will hang from January through April.

BRIEFS

Note from Wendi

Dear Friends,

This note is to express my profound gratitude for the outpouring of kind words and support that has been given to my family and me. The amount of support we have received is truly amazing. No words can convey the appreciation that we all feel. Thank you again.

Sincerely,

Wendi Ball and Family

December location change

Remember the December meetings will be at the usual times. But be sure to show up at the Richland Library with your sweet or savory finger foods to share!

Deadline set for

2025 Raffle Quilt blocks

Please turn in your 16-patch and pinwheel blocks of brights and whites for the 2025 raffle quilt by the December meetings. I will also be in need of 2½" strips of the bright fabrics for the outermost (5th!) border. Turn in fabric and blocks to Karen Michaels. Thank you for your efforts! And special thanks to Cyndy Underwood and Ethel Ferger for the many blocks they made!

Member renewal time

It's time to renew your 2024 membership. Save money by renewing before December 31. Form on page 6. Any questions contact Kate, k8cpq@aol.com.

From our friends at Desert Fiber Arts

DFA's annual Fall Market, Show, and Fundraiser is being planned for November 3-4th, returning to Central Church in Richland (1124 Stevens Dr). Our makers are busy spinning, knitting, weaving, and felting beautiful new goods for this exciting annual shopping event.

Enjoy an amazing selection of unique gifts for everyone on your Christmas list. From luxury fashions and accessories, to dryer balls and mug rugs, and our sell-out tea towels, you'll find something to please everyone. You may even find something indulgent for yourself!

Throughout the weekend, you'll also appreciate the many fiber arts demonstrations by DFA members. Bring your family and friends. We look forward to seeing you there!

Fall Market will be held Friday, Nov 3rd 10-6 and Saturday, Nov 4th 10-4.

QUILT FRAME FOR SALE

Bernina quilt frame, 10-ft long, never used

Fits any machine

Asking $1,400

Contact Glenda: glendaglenn@gmail.com or text 541-398-0843

FEET and RULERS FOR SALE

Bernina Artista 360/365 embroidery Alex Anderson version has about 10 feet to offer at 1/2 the original purchase price. Most not used! Also selling about 25 plastic rulers.

Contact Kay at (509) 460-3935 by text for photos or to set up a time to look. Have coffee or tea at my home!

Pot holders fundraiser

Pot holders are being accepted now for the 2024 Quilt Show. This is a project that TCQG members participate in to help raise money for the Guild. Please consider making a pair or more to donate—all it takes is some fabric scraps, a square of Insul-Bright and a square or two of batting.

Use your own materials or contact Terese Pratt for squares of Insul-Bright and/or batting to help you complete your donations. She'll have supplies at the Guild meetings or call 509-591-1973 and leave a message. Unleash your creativity!

Opportunities to Volunteer

We have three more public events where we will be selling raffle quilt tickets prior to the quilt show next March.

The first event is at the Richland Nazarene Church Holiday Bazaar on November 11th (Veteran's Day). The signup sheet was distributed at the October 16th membership meetings.

The next event will be at the Badger Mountain Elementary School Holiday Bazaar on December 2nd. The signup sheet will be distributed at the November 13th membership meetings.

Finally, the Tri-Cities Sportsmen Show on January 26-28, 2024, at the HAPO Center. This is a three-day event, Friday through Sunday. Signup sheets will be distributed at the January 15th membership meetings. This event takes many more volunteers, think about signing up on multiple days.

The raffle quilt tickets are one of our fundraisers to support the guild. We need volunteers who can sit for 2-hour shifts to sell tickets and tell the public about our guild and the community services that we provide.

Please consider volunteering when one of the signup sheets comes your way. Or contact Nancy Graves at nancyjg@charter.net.

Quilt Show News

With the turning of the leaves and the cooler temperatures, I start to think about holiday traditions. When our children were little, my sister and I used to try to outdo each other with hand made ornaments and other things. One year I spent the entire month of November making flannel blankets from flannel sheets. I don't think they were as well received by our Southern California relatives as the New York relatives, but I had fun making them. That tradition continued until our children were in their late teens. My son and granddaughter picked up the tradition for a while until she went to college. When I take out the ornaments each year, I still get inspired to make ornaments. But then I go to my sewing room and use that inspiration to create a quilted treasure. This year I'm making a Christmas quilt. I got a late start but I was waiting for my inspiration.

I can't believe that in just six short months we will be having our 40th Annual Tri-City Quilters' Guild Quilt Show, "Inspired by Tradition". I hope this beautiful fall weather inspires you to get going on projects you put off in the sultry summer months. I can't wait to see all the beautiful inspired quilts you will have to show.

If you're thinking of ways to get involved in our 40th Annual Quilt Show, and even our 41st, contact me. In addition to the volunteers we need for the actual show, we need a sign wrangler and someone for the 2025 Round Tuit Room. Please consider stepping up and taking on one of these positions.

Now to go brew a cup of tea and stare at my Christmas fabric stash ...

Show quilt registration is approaching. Are you ready?

The quilt show committee is working hard to bring you our 2024 quilt show. We will once again be using the online quilt registration interface to register quilts in the show.

You will be asked to enter your email and password which you will use for all your quilt entries. If you are new to registration, you will create an account. If you have forgotten your password from 2023, there is a button to recover it. Please use a unique password that is not used on sensitive sites on your computer.

There will be several categories for registering your quilt, including "Inspired by Tradition", "Origins Challenge", workshops, collaborations, and other categories.

The guild will use a ranking system if we have more quilts than we can hang. Members will be asked to enter their quilts in ranked order, i.e., the first quilt you enter will be the highest rank among your quilts. If we have to remove quilts, the last one you enter will be considered your lowest ranked quilt and could be selected for removal. Since adopting this rule, we have not had to remove quilts, but you never know!

Registration will open on January 1, 2024, at 12:01AM. Start planning now to prepare for quilt registration. Please contact Nancy Graves, at NANCYJG@CHARTER.NET if you have questions.

2024 Quilt Show Challenge: Origins

Origin definition: The point or place where something begins, arises, or is derived. The beginning, start, inception, foundation, base, root, pedigree, lineage, heritage, starting point, or ancestry.

Origin Challenge: Create a quilt depicting your origins. Considerations include:

- Where or when you are from
- Who or what influenced aspects of the person you are today
- Your cultural or ethnic background
- Your foundational beliefs

Rules:

- Must be a current TCQG member to enter
- Entries must reflect the theme of Origins
- Any shape, any fabric, any embellishment is allowed
- Maximum circumference of 200 inches, no minimum size
- All entries must be 3 layers held together by quilting or tying and have finished edges

Entries are due the week of March 4, 2024. Drop off locations TBA. Voting for winners will occur at the March 18, 2024 guild meeting; quilts and ribbons will be displayed at the quilt show.

Community Service

Community Service news

We have caught up slightly with 219 quilts delivered through October.

Please remember to have a community service tag on the finished tops and quilts: we would like to acknowledge those of you who assist us with community service. You can always go to our website and download/print out the form:

<https://tcquilters.org/files/media/332/trackingtags.pdf>

Also don't forget to turn in quilts, finished from bundles you have previously checked out, by the November meeting. That way, your name can go into the drawing that will be held at the December meeting.

The Closet

Need (free) materials to complete a Guild project? Check out the GUILD CLOSET! Pick from a rainbow of colors to create a top or back, take home a kit, or finish one with quilting or binding. There's batting, too! Fabric donations are welcome.

Access to the Closet is currently by appointment only. Email Cyndy Underwood (quilterathart@yahoo.com), Nancy Green (nancysneedles@charter.net), or Laurel Sutton (coversincolors@yahoo.com) to agree on a convenient rendezvous.

The "Get Round Tuit" Declutter Challenge

The "Get Round Tuit" Declutter Challenge will help you declutter your sewing area one category at a time, one month at a time. Bring at least one item in that month's category to either the AM or PM Guild Meeting and enter your name in a monthly drawing for a $5.00 gift certificate (and early access!) to the 2024 Round Tuit Room. Of course, we will accept any donation from the list below during any month, but items donated during the designated month will help us with the sorting process.

- ◆ Thru Feb      Fabric (cotton, non-cotton, precuts, fat quarters, panels, scraps, etc.)
- ◆ November    Knitting & Crochet (yarn, thread, etc.)
- ◆ December    Other Craft Supplies (stamps, paper crafts, plastic canvas, etc.)
- ◆ January      Miscellaneous (working sewing machines, sergers, other?)
- ◆ February     Storage (bins, baskets, organizers, etc.)

We will not accept non-working machines or magazines. If you, or someone you know, has a large donation, please text Elaine Brouillard at 509-551-2355 to make arrangements.

Cheat Retreat.3 on Sun/Mon Nov 5/6

This popular fundraiser repeats right before the holiday rush: finish making your gifts for family and friends or just sew for the joy of it -- two long days of piecing, pressing, dithering, designing, and mutual support.

This low-budget/zero-travel retreat will cater to early-bird and night-owl sewists: we'll open as early and close as late as quilters request. Ironing stations and design walls will be available for up to 15 sewists. There will be crock pots simmering in the kitchen; other snacks and side dishes will be potluck.

Cost is a bargain $25/day. Register and pay your nonrefundable fee at White Bluffs Quilt Museum.

Upcoming classes

Kawandi class

Oct 29 (Sunday) from 1 to 4

Identified with India, this technique was actually imported with enslaved Africans. Linda Williams will guide you in this method of hand-stitching scraps. Bring 20"x16" backing, 19"x15" batting, and scrap pieces; tapestry needle, crochet thread, safety pins, and scissors.

Sashiko class

Nov 12 (Sunday) from 1 to 4

This style of traditional Japanese embroidery dates back to the 1600s, when farming and fishing families had to make practical workwear with layers of cloth. Linda Weir will explain thread choice, marking methods, and the "rules" of sashiko, hitomezashi, and moyozashi. Linda will provide kits for $15, payable at the class.

Cost $36 each class. Nonrefundable prepayment is due when you sign up: register and pay online at www.whitebluffsquiltmuseum.org or register in person --Fri and Sat from 10 to 4; Mon thru Thu from 10 to 12.

Black Friday Sale

Nov 24-25 (Friday and Saturday) from 10 to 4

It has been a banner year for donations, so there will be an abundance of fabric, notions, patterns, and tools on offer at bargain prices. The little Brother machines have been replaced, so they will be for sale -- a perfect gift for someone who wants to learn to sew. New from the Preservation committee -- a selection of vintage and antique UFOs to inspire your creativity.

Annual/Holiday Meeting on Sat, Dec 2

Come at noon for soup and conversation. Look at the 2024 calendar and put in your requests for classes, activities, events.

New Books for the Library Fall 2023

The following books have recently been added to the Guild library. There's a wide variety of topics, and these books can be found at White Bluffs Quilt Museum.

The Best of Jelly Roll Quilts by Pam & Nicky Lintott

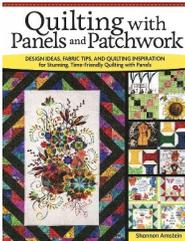

The Lintotts have been designing jelly roll quilt patterns since these popular pre-cut fabric bundles were launched back in 2007, and the quilts in this collection are their very favourites chosen from their previous 13 quilt books.
