President's Message

Congratulations to the entire 2017 Quilt Show team, lead by Chairperson Laurel Sutton, for a successful Show!

Visitors and vendors alike gave us high marks for the quality of our presentation – they enjoyed the artistry of the quilts on display, our wonderful guest artists, and even complimented the guild for being a “well-oiled machine” in putting on the event. Credit and kudos go to the many helping hands!

Jean Keaveney
2017 TC Quilt Guild
President

Now, without missing a beat, we are moving on to 2018... Show Chairperson Elaine Brouillard will soon be holding the first planning session to outline her theme, vision, and plans for our 35th annual show. If you enjoyed this year and want to be a part of 2018's team let her know!

The first open position leading up to the 2018 Show is Raffle Quilt Chairperson. Lois Pedersen did a terrific job this past year scheduling venues and coordinating the volunteers. If you or your friendship group are interested in being the raffle quilt “shepherd” let me know (jeankeaveney@gmail.com).

Summer is a great time to take a class, plan a shop hop or take a road trip to a nearby quilt show. Watch the web for announcements as opportunities come up. Count me in if the Oregon Coast is involved!

Awarded by merchants or members:

Connie Achord: “Stag Nation” was envied by Daniel Turlington of Reine Crafts:

Understated “flast; simple appearance yet impressive, interesting image.

Ginger Boom : “Calico Garden” was envied by Carole Corder of Mission Lake Designs:

Hand Quilting. This quilt could have come right out of my grandmothers closet; she taught me to hand-quilt.

By Judy Hoagland of Home Grown Quilts:

Beautiful 30’s quilt! Great job. The time it takes to hand quilt is not lost on me, even though it’s becoming a lost art.

Elaine Brouillard: “Beep Beep” was envied by Karen from Crystal Delight:

Workmanship, very nice quilting and a great story.

Phyllis Burnham: “Circling the Wagon” was envied by Vicki Hasseltine from Back Porch Quilts and Designs:

Piecing and quilting: you are so talented!

Ellen Cornelly: “Charmed Adventure” was envied by Jo Matthias::

Your amazing embroidery and I love your colors..

Ellen Cornelly: “Affairs of the Heart” was envied by Linda Williams:

Choice of bright colors against black fabric; they really pop.

Shelly Coykendall: “Christmas Jubilee” was envied by Connie Achord:

Awesome quilting! I love the use of white with very little Christmas color. Beautiful!

Shelly Coykendall: “Modern Whole Cloth” was envied by Elaine Brouillard:

Use of color, negative space and intense, gorgeous quilting. Keep on going and sewing.

Sandy Eisinger: “Catch Me ... If You Can” was envied by Jason Yenter:

Awesome colors and design; the black looks great with all the bling.

Sammie Engelke: “Rose of Sharon” was envied by Rather-Be’s Quilt Show:

Applique: placed on the creamy satin background it makes this quilt absolutely stunning..

Ethel Ferger: “Big Flower Garden” was envied by Chris Cowan:

Choice of color and beautiful quilting - a stunning piece.

Erin Funderburk: “Amatheia” was envied by Grammy G’s Treasures and notions:

Subject and creativity; I just love art quilts.

Cheryl Garrison: “Geese Migrate Around the Color Wheel” was envied by Geneva Carroll:

Color sense and quilting!

Jan Greenwell: “Modern Composition” was envied by Phillis Burnham:

What you managed to do with these blocks you received from members of Make It Modern.

Mary Jane Hackwith: “Two-Block Quilt” was envied by Anderson Family Farms:

Your very large, beautiful quilt; it has so many colors and shapes! Congratulations!

June Hansen: “Sedimentary” was envied by Judy Johnson of Thread-mongers:

Juxtaposition of the strata and the organic quilting shapes and choice of hand-dyed fabrics ... it made me think!

June Hansen: “Pound to Pieces” was envied by Karen Brun:

Offbeat sense of style, wonderful use of asymmetrical placement and great quilting.

Katie Harris: “Bradeful Vogart Butterflies” was envied by Karen Brun from White Bluffs Quilt Museum:

Creative layout and immaculate embroidery make your quilt a standout.

Velva Harris: “Avery’s I-Spy” was envied by Fabric 108:

Colors and them.

Sara Landon: “15-Year Vintage” was envied by Wendi Ball]:

Color choice: its high impact from far away translates to beautiful details up close!

Virginia Lowry: “Baskets of Love” was envied by Jessica Wilson from Ardith Eakin:

Colors and quilting - very lovely.

Judy Main: “Waterfall Garden” was envied by Sue Cornell:

Color, pattern, calming design. Love it!

Andrea Melius: “Sunrise on the Platte” was envied by Ravenshire.

Mark Palmer: “The Birth of Paradise” was envied by Rena Christensen:

Beautiful paper piecing and colors; your quilting is awesome, too!!

Carol Shoaf: “Crazy Quilt” was envied by Linda Glaman:

The precision and detail in your handwork: it brings out the beauty and diversity of the natural world. Thank you for keeping the roots of our art alive.

Laurel Sutton: “Fizzy Mix of Fabric and Friends 2” was envied by Barbara Sherrill:

Graphic quality and fresh colors: it shows beautifully! Great job!

Eleanor Weston: “Judy’s Quilt” was envied by Charlotte from Discount Vac and Sew:

Dedication to finally finishing! The hard work shows; it looks beautiful.

Linda Woosley: “Columbia River Cliffside” was envied by Suzi Sonderlund from Marbled Arts:

Creativity: I so want to touch the textures ... a place I would love to walk.

Linda Woosley: “Home Sweet Home” was envied by Nancy Call of Nancy’s Quilts:

All the detail of the different senses gives me a warm, cozy feeling ... amazing!

News from White Bluffs Quilt Museum:

Teach A Class: This is a call for teachers for our 2017 summer children's program. Classes will start mid July and go till mid August. If you have a class you would volunteer to teach or you would be available to help during a class, please contact White Bluffs. The deadline for adding your class is May 13.

Create A Scrappy Tote Bag: Our own Mark Palmer will teach a beginner-friendly class: scrappy tote bag. You can make it any size you want by varying the size of the squares, and add whatever you desire for inside pockets: zipper pockets, elastic pockets, whatever. This bag has one outside pocket and three inside pockets. Class will be held on Saturday, May 13; contact White Bluffs for more information.

Sell Your Quilts During Boat Race Weekend: Calling all quilters! White Bluffs will be selling quilts during boat race weekend in July; time to check stocks and get ready to sell. White Bluffs will assess a 20% commission for members (non-members pay 25%); contact the Museum to arrange to offer your works for sale.

From the 2018 Quilt Show Chair:

Design The Member Quilt Challenge!

Still glowing from the 2017 Quilt Show? Now is your chance to craft the member challenge for 2018, our 35th Annual Quilt Show.

We're looking for members or friendship groups who would like to create and chair the Member Challenge for next year. This group decides and designs the Member Challenge for the upcoming show.

It's easy--and member Debbi Trevino has provided an excellent outline to get you up and running. You'll learn how to conduct the challenge quilt committee, with a time line to keep you on track.

We need you! What's your take on "Persistence of Pattern", and how would you design a challenge?

The challenge will be selected in early June, with a submission deadline of May 31. Grab your friends, put on your concept caps, and take the challenge! Contact Elaine at esbrouillard@gmail.com to take part in this fun Guild activity.

Mark's Quilt Shop Guide:

The Crazy Quilter Lind, WA

Imagine a retreat center where you can spend all day quilting then retire to the back room for a massage, then a steam room or a soak in a hot tub. Or maybe a manicure.

If that sounds great, welcome to Crazy Quilter (CQ) in Lind, WA, just two miles west of 395 and a few miles south of Ritzville. Their web site is pretty accurate where it says they are "in the middle of nowhere but on the way to everywhere." If you want something to do at night you might even get lucky and have a 'Combine' demolition derby going on at the racetrack just around the corner.

CQ is owned and operated by PJ Jacobsen. PJ has been operating a baby store for 31 years now. She and her husband Jake got tired of the congestion the Seattle area and started looking for property to remodel in a quieter area.

They found a church for sale in Lind, and you don't get much quieter than Lind, unless maybe you are on Mars. She actually found the church for sale on Ebay. It took PJ, Jake and their boys ten years to turn the church into a quilt retreat center. And they did a beautiful job.

The retreat center has been open for about two years, and combines quilt store, workstations, spa, exercise room, kitchen, and dormitory all in one building. PJ still operates the baby store, mostly specializing in nursing supplies.

CQ has space for 17 quilters, both workspace area and bedrooms. There is a kitchen where you can either have food catered or cook your own food. There is no minimum number for booking but there is a minimum two night stay for overnight bookings and they are happy to have small groups. The longarm is rentable by the square foot of the quilt, not by the hour.

Future plans call for moving the quilt store to a separate building nearby so they can expand the classroom space. The separate building will also house a commercial kitchen so they can provide meals for retreats.

So take a day trip up to Crazy Quilter and check it out. It's only an hour drive north of the Tri-Cities. Lind is just a classic American farming community with lots of interesting old farmhouses and storefronts to see. And don't forget to check out the farm implement demolition derby!

BOARD BRIEFS

March 2017

The meeting was called to order at 6:38 p.m. by President Jean Keaveney. Board Secretary Ardith Eakin took the minutes.

Treasurer's Report: Chris Cowan, Treasurer, reported that ending balances for the month of December are:

- Checking $23,841.49
- Money Market $20,012.74

The board approved purchase of a new version of Quick Books.

Membership: Membership chair Floriene Turlington reported that current membership lies between 250 and 300 members, with 170 renewals. The board voted to clarify that members in good standing on December 31 may register the member number of quilts for the following year's quilt show.

White Bluffs Liaison: Jo Matthias and Jean Zoet reported that a White Bluffs reception will be held Saturday, March 25, for the "Links to the 1930s" show, and that White Bluffs will have quilts for sale at the show.

Quilt Show: Laurel Sutton reported that programs and viewer choice ballots are being printed, silent auction is ready to go, and that sign-up sheets will be available at meetings.

Retreat: Spring Retreat is full, but will offer an option for day camping; price will be $70 or less for day campers. The board approved a motion calling for retreat sign-ups to be opened no sooner than the date of the first meeting following a retreat, to provide fair access for all members.

Workshops: Jo Matthias shared information about the Joe Cunningham workshop on September 11-12. Barbara Minton will take over planning workshops after the September event.

Programs: March programs will feature member challenge voting. Jo Matthias will take over program responsibilities starting in November.

New Business: Congratulations to Judy Main, who has been named featured artist at the Odessa Quilt Show, to be held April 28.

Meeting was adjourned at 8:35 p.m.; next board meeting will be Monday, April 10, at 6:30 p.m. at White Bluffs.

April 2017

The meeting was called to order at 6:30 p.m. by President Jean Keaveney. Board Secretary Ardith Eakin took the minutes.

Treasurer's Report: Chris Cowan, Treasurer, reported that ending balances for the month of January are:

- Checking $44,553.67
- Money Market $20,023.70

Chris reported that the quilt show made a profit of about $5,768.31.

AM/PM Secretaries: 80 members were present for the March AM meeting, while the PM meeting saw 41 present. The PM group has voted to once again include refreshments. Jean's slide show premiered to good reviews from members.

Quilt Show: Kudos were awarded Chair Laurel Sutton for a wonderful, profitable quilt show. The Board debriefed the show and noted several areas for future improvement ... or adoption.

2018 Show Chair Elaine Brouillard announced the 2018 theme: "Persistence of Pattern". Featured artist will be Laurie J. Shifern.

Properties: Laurel Sutton noted that a large white board, a heavy dolly and clip lights can be surplused, and recommended that a small, light wagon or cart be purchased to replace the heavy dolly..

Community Service: The community service booth at the show was well-received. CS In-Betweens sewing will be in May this year. Finally, the CASA Guardian Ad Litem program was added to the list of Guild recipients.

Retreat: Barbara Furlong reminded the board that registration for Fall Retreat will not be accepted until May 15, date of the first TCQG meeting after Spring Retreat.

Bylaws: The by-laws committee will meet to review proposed changes.

New Business: Jean Keaveney has contacted several restaurants about catering the guild's annual meeting in December

Meeting was adjourned at 8:27 p.m.; next board meeting will be Monday, May 8, at 6:30 p.m. at White Bluffs.
