President's Message

This message is being written in December, we haven't had a hard freeze yet, but I'm thinking ahead – when you read this in the January/February newsletter I'm sure we will have some real winter weather behind us...and ahead!

Let's put on our boots, warm coat and brightest scarf and get out of the house! Go shopping. Take a class. Come to the Guild meeting. Join a friendship group. The grey days of winter will pass quickly if we ignore the inconvenience and just keep on keeping on, right? And there is always a warm quilt waiting at home for fireside snuggling!

Jean Keaveney
2016 TC Quilt Guild
President

We are three months and counting to the 34th Quilt Show. Is your challenge complete? How about those quilts you registered "on faith" that they will be done?

While you are taking a break to read this Newsletter, would you give some thought to a couple of areas where the Guild can really use your help? We have needed a publicity chairman for a couple years (kudos to Laurel Sutton who has filled that slot!) and we would welcome a volunteer to coordinate our "get the word out" efforts.

A second open position is chairman for our Programs. This job may be split into AM and PM program coordinators. Programs keep our meetings fun, informative, and fresh. If you would like to know more about the responsibilities for these positions, please contact Jean Keaveney.

Now for a resolution...I resolve to sing every day, to be joyful every day and QUILT every day! Bless you every one!

--Jean

Mark's Quilt Shop Guide:

The Sewing Basket Prosser, WA

If you have been quilting very long in the Tri-Cities area you have probably been to the Sewing Basket on Wine Country Road in Prosser, WA. And especially if you have needed fabric of just the right color, just the right print, just the right sparkle, or chickens, or cows, or polka dots, or whatever.

The Sewing Basket is owned and operated by Marilyn and Ben Dalstra. They started out with a family dairy farm for 27 years, and then 22 years ago started up the Sewing Basket. It started out small and has been growing ever since. Five years ago they opened up the 'Annex', the building in the rear behind the storefront facing right on Wine Country Road. Ben taught agricultural sciences in the Pasco school district until he retired five years ago and now helps out at the Sewing Basket.

I asked Marilyn what they specialize in, and there was a pause, and she said "everything." I can't imagine how Marilyn does it, but she keeps track of all 11,000 to 12,000 bolts of fabric. There is a food section, a 'blender' section, a polka dot section, a farm animal section, reproduction fabric, and more batiks, Christmas, and Halloween fabrics than you can imagine. Currently they have 7,500 fabrics online and when an order comes in Marilyn has to remember where every bolt is stashed. Over half the fabric sales are now online purchases

Twelve years ago they purchased the building next door on the Yakima River and turned it into a six bedroom, four bath, bed and breakfast. They specialize in quilt retreats, and best part is the fabric store is right next door!

Stay tuned for BIG plans for the future, as Ben and Marilyn have a special treat in store for us quilters.

2017 Quilt Show News

Quilt Show Registrations Now Open

Ready to enter your work in the 2017 Quilt Show? To register online, visit the Online Registration Form on the TCQG Web site.

To submit a paper registration form, use the Registration Form on the facing page and follow mailing instructions to transmit your entry.

National Guest Artist: Jason Yenter

Guest Artist Jason Yenter, is CEO and chief designer for In the Beginning Fabrics, a company hat is celebrating its 40th year in the quilting economy.

Begun by his mother as a bricks-and-mortar store in Seattle, ITB has participated in the quilting explosion that started with the American bicentennial.

Jason's exhibit will include quilts from the company archive and quilts he has designed for his own fabrics. His lecture on Saturday afternoon will also address aspects of market-savvy fabric design and manufacture.

COMMUNITY SERVICE BLOCK JANUARY-FEBRUARY 2017

Mega Mug- Makes a 9.5-inch Square UNfinished, 9-inch finished

Time to be sipping hot ones! This is an original pattern, inspired by the cold weather in December. The handle can be to the left or to the right, depending on how you hold yours!

Two fabrics are used for each block, to be available at the meeting.

CUTTING INSTRUCTIONS:

From background fabric, cut:

For Handle Section:

Two 1.5" squares
One 4" x 2" rectangle

For Borders:

Two 9.5" x 2" rectangles
One (bottom) 6.5" x 1.5"
One (top) 6.5" x 3"

From featured fabric, cut:

MegaMug:

One 4" x 6" mug
Two 1.5" x 3" top/bottom of handle
One 1.5" x 4" handle

SEWING INSTRUCTIONS:

Lay out the cut pieces.

Sew the handle: first the vertical section, then add the corners to the top and bottom of the handle, paying attention to the angles.

Add the top and bottom of the handle to the vertical part.

Note: press all seams to the mug, to make it stand out.

Sew the top and bottom borders to the mug, then add the two side pieces.

BOARD BRIEFS

November 2016

The meeting was called to order at 6:35 p.m. by President Jean Keaveney. Board Secretary Ardith Eakin took the minutes.

Treasurer's Report: Chris Cowan, Treasurer, reported that ending balances for the month of October are:

- Checking $26,374.44
- Money Market $20,011.42

The final budget will be presented and voted upon at the general membership meeting in December.

Quilt Show: Chair Laurel Sutton reported that professional design work will be contracted out. Vendor information has gone out and responses received. Confusion on the dates is being clarified with the vendors.

Community Service: Cyndy Underwood reported 211 quilts received and about 200 distributed. Not a large participation at the Richland Library sewing days.

Old Business: The committee to review bylaws and policies will reconvene after the new year.

New Business: Jean asked for friendship groups to be introduced to the members at the general meetings.

Meeting was adjourned at 8:20 p.m.; next board meeting will be Monday, December 5, at 6:30 p.m. at White Bluffs.

December 2016

The meeting was called to order at 6:31 p.m. by President Jean Keaveney. Board Secretary Ardith Eakin took the minutes.

Treasurer's Report: Chris Cowan, Treasurer, reported that ending balances for the month of November are:

- Checking $18,647.70
- Money Market $20,011.75

Quilt Show: Chair Laurel Sutton reported that online registration will be live on the Web in January.

Properties: Laurel Sutton reported that the frames are completed, Make It Modern will pick up the signs, update them, and distribute them around the Tri-Cities in time for the show.

Old Business: A thank-you note was sent to Sandy's Fabrics for fabric donation.

New Business: Agenda for the annual meeting was reviewed.

Meeting was adjourned at 8:20 p.m.; next board meeting will be Monday, January 9, at 6:30 p.m. at White Bluffs.

December Annual Meeting

The annual meeting was called to order by President Jean Keaveney at 10:20 a.m. New officers were introduced, and outgoing board members were recognized and thanked for their service.

Treasurer's Report: Chris presented the 2017 budget, and explained the 2016 budget, expenditures and considerations that went into the 2017 budget. The 2017 budget was approved unanimously.

Membership: Membership chair Floriene Turlington gave a current membership report, and opened 2017 registrations.

Quilt Show: Show Chair Laurel Sutton spoke about the show, programs, featured artist, and current status of preparations.

Raffle Quilt: The raffle quilt was displayed and tickets offered for sales.

Community Service: During Show-and-Tell, several community service quilts were displayed. Members enjoyed the show-and-tell time.

A potluck brunch was enjoyed by all. Throughout the meeting, small door prizes were awarded. The final door prize--a Baby Lock Rachel sewing machine donated by Ginny Hildreth of Discount Vac and Sew-- became the property of lucky member, Susie Shipp.

Meeting was adjourned at 12:30 p.m.; next board meeting will be held Monday, January 9, at 6:30 p.m. at White Bluffs.

Friendship Group News

"Lunch and Learn" Emphasis for In Betweens

The TCQG's newest Friendship Group, the "In Betweens", meets every other month. Open to all, this group works on community service projects during the afternoon between AM and PM meetings. Since the group sets up in the Hillspring Church meeting room, it's a convenient way to help out with the Guild's Community Service mission.

Beginning in October, the group has a new format: Lunch and Learn!

The CS committee will be sharing new ways to stack, whack, stitch and create quilts for our community. Learn new blocks and easy techniques for fun quilting.

Next "In Betweens" group meets in February. Pack your tools and supplies, bring a salad to share, and prepare to learn. Ready, set, sew!
