President's Message

Whew! The 2016 show has come and gone - what a beautiful display of artwork! The coolest thing on display at our show is the teamwork that makes it happen. I'm so proud to be a part of an organization capable of not only producing such a dynamic show, but also filling that framework with the fantastic quilts (and non-quilts) we make. Rena Christiansen, for your job as Chairman, we salute you!

Jean Keaveney
2015 TC Quilt Guild
President

Now begins the time of renewal – some of us are heading to the Spring Retreat, and I know others are planning some exciting Shop Hops in the next few weeks. HOWEVER, we won't be resting for long on our laurels, because the early preparation for the next Show begins soon. We are delighted that Laurel Sutton will be chairing the show – she shares her theme inside this edition of the Newsletter. She has great ideas and is giving us plenty of time to turn those ideas into “fabricated” reality.

The 2017 Challenge will be presented at the June meetings. If you have an idea for the Challenge of 2017 and would like to head up that display, contact Laurel by May 15th.

We have a gorgeous new raffle quilt created by Wendi Ball. It is really stunning. The raffle quilt debuts at the Prosser “Uncommon Threads” show June 24-25. We need a group or an individual right away to coordinate the travels of the raffle quilt this year as many of the venues have deadlines looming. This is a good job for a group of friends as there is both a paper-work aspect and a travel/set up aspect. You can contact me or Laurel if you would like to take this on.

Thank you again to all who worked so hard to make our 2016 Show a success. 2017, here we come!

Jean

Green With Envy Ribbons

Awarded by merchants or members:

Helen Alexander: England Memories was envied by Debbie Goetz of Grammy G’s:

Wonderful circles color combination, and all the different patterns within the awesome quilt.

By Desert Fiber Arts:

DFA has a lot in common with quilters: we are drawn to fine craftsmanship, use of color and texture.

By Val Alderson:

expertise in copying the photo. The fabric selection, cutting and piecing are expertly done! A very lucky granddaughter!!

Ginger Boom : Floral Medallion was envied by Then & Now:

We are a small friendship group that admires and likes to replicate traditional quilts. Therefore, our award goes to the quilt we think follows traditional methods. We think this quilt is exquisite! (Katie Harris, Edna Baum, LuElla Morrison, Ellen Sly, and Linda Morrison)

Cynda Clark: Solar Flame was envied by White Bluffs Quilt Museum:

Beautiful work!

Barbara Collop: Rectangles was envied by Suzi Soderlund of Marbled Arts:

Love everything about your quilt – color, design, and quilting.

By Vicki Hesseltine of Back Porch Quilts & Designs:

I love everything about your quilt: clean lines, crisp; very pleasant to view. Well done!

By Kathy Lindell of Eagles Nest Designs:

I so admire your inspired design & workmanship. Simplicity is oftentimes the most dramatic. Excellent use of space with the quilting designs.

Shelly Coykendall: A Graceful Winter was envied by Elaine Brouillard:

I so admire your taste, technique, incredible quilting.

Alice Ellis: Family Challenge was envied by Jo Matthias:

You and your family are an inspiration to us all to do better!

Monica Feemster: Ode to Elizabeth was envied by Mission Lake Designs:

I so admire your postage stamp quilt. Perfectly pieced. Love your fabrics.

Jerrine Gjerdevig: It's All About the Print was envied by For Heavens Sake Teas:

I love the subtle sparkles and the intricate stitching is absolutely AMAZING!! Wonderful and Inspiring.

Teri Hinkson: Red Floral Rings was envied by Fabric 108:

I so admire your fabric selection, and the embroidery work is perfect and exquisite.

Teri Hinkson: Art Nouveau Flora was envied by Vivian Suchoki, Three Rivers Event Manager:

I so admire your masterpiece. Thank you for sharing your art; it is breathtaking.

Judy Main: Pathway to the Stars was envied by Phyllis Burnham:

I so admire your stars and the twisty parts and the rick rack accent.

Phyllis Maynard: Three Sisters was envied by Chris Cowen:

I so admire your beautiful quilt. It took my breath away. When I heard you designed it, too, that helped to make this my choice as my favorite this year.

By Katie Harris:

I so admire your handquilted work – beautiful stitches and choice of designs.

Dianne Najarian: Charming Bow Ties was envied by Karen Brun:

I so admire your tenacity in finishing this beautiful quilt. Awesome job!

Ashley Oberg: Churn Dash was envied by Judy Johnson of Thread-mongers:

I think this quilt shows a master of "low volume" or low contrast fabric selection – a beautiful treatment of a classic block.

Kathie Pomrankey: Oriental Peacock was envied by Warren of Quilting on the Grid:

I so admire your colors and design. The work you put into this is beyond my thought. Simply beautiful!

Christine Powell: Jumping for Joy was envied by Todd Stephens of Janean's Bernina & Janome:

I so admire your original quilt pattern. Your design is simple and cute. I love your use of prairie points and the elves.

Caryn Root: Heart of Mine was envied by Judy and Bonnie at Home Grown Quilts:

Your quilt is beautiful, and we can feel your love for your son as he served in Iraq, as we went through the same thing. We love your heart – both yours and the one on your quilt. Hugs!

Carol Shoaf: The Gang's All Here was envied by The Quiltmaniacs (in memory of Pat Merkel):

We so admire your Halloween theme (Pat's favorite holiday) and beautiful handwork (Pat embroidered, too).

Laurel Sutton: Sutton Places was envied by Toni Jones:

I was inspired by the story that your quilt tells with the blocks and joining red half square triangles. The journey of you and your family is now documented in a quilt for many years to come and will be a treasure to your Granddaughter.

Donna Vetter: My First Quilt was envied by [unsigned]:

First quilt ... now on to the next! Keep sewing and quilting!

Karyn Watson: Home on the Farm was envied by Jessica Wilson from Discount Vac & Sew:

I so admire the dedication and time you put into this quilt. It is beautiful and captures the landscape perfectly.

Eleanor Weston: Eternity with Jesus was envied by Nancy Call of Nancy's Quilts:

I like the message! Wonderful use of mixed methods. Paper piecing – wow!

By Aurelio Munoz Jr of Three Rivers Gourmet:

I so admire your creative design and the message this quilt sends out.

By Rather-Be's Quilt Shop and Retreat House:

I so admire your use of colors – rich and beautiful!

Quilts of Valor Presented at 2016 Show

The Tri-City Quilters' Guild hosted a Quilts of Valor presentation on April 2nd during our 33rd Annual Quilt Show. Five local military veterans were presented with beautiful "star spangled" quilts. Retired Major John Cole (Army) and Mick Hemphill (Navy) made the presentations assisted by their wives Vicki Cole and Linda Hemphill, photographers.

The veteran recipients were John Keaveney, husband of Jean Keaveney; Tom Brun, husband of Karen Brun; Don Merhar, husband of Debi Merhar of Quiltmania Quilt Shop; Arthur Melius, brother of Andrea Melius, and Jake Jacobsen, local veteran family.

Our appreciation goes to Judy Main, Judy Lyon, Andrea Melius, Debbie Trevino, Jan Greenwell, Roxie Ross, the "Sew What" friendship group, as well as several other members of the Guild who worked to create these special quilts.

The Quilts of Valor organization sent their thanks to the Guild for the opportunity to make this presentation at the Show.

The Quilts of Valor presentation was an exciting moment during the show, and the Guild was pleased to honor our veterans. Many thanks to the Quilts of Valor group for organizing the event.

2017 Quilt Show Theme Selected: Quilting Economic$

It wasn't the ball that fell – it was the frames: SY (show year) 2016 is over, and SY 2017 has begun. We'll be back at Three Rivers Convention Center on March 24-25; many happy merchants will also return for a celebration of "Quilting Economic$", selected as 2017 theme.

Show chair Laurel Sutton chose the theme in part to fulfill the "educational" half of the guild mission. "We can inform the public about how quilting and quilters influence the production, distribution, and consumption of goods and services (topics studied by the science of economics)."

Theme entries will be thrifty; the emphasis on frugality goes back to the origins of our craft. Anything you make with hand-me-downs or scraps or bargains will qualify. If you've had a scrap quilt on your bucket list, this is your year! If you don't have money for the variety of fabrics you want, or time to sew all the blocks, get a little help from your friends: organize a fabric swap or block swap in your small group.

Special exhibit entries, on the other hand, will be spendy. Anything you make that shows an extravagant investment of treasure or time or talent will qualify. Have you got some very gorgeous, expensive fabric? Have you invested heavily in beads, fibers, embellishments? If you've been reluctant to use them, this is your year! Have you got a long-term/intricate/heirloom project going? This is your year to finish! Do you have an idea that demands new skills or techniques? This is your year to cultivate your creativity.

One additional display category will be for "overdue bills" or past-due projects. Revel in your second chance for New Year's Resolutions! If you missed a challenge deadline in the past, finish your cow or moose or Jamie Fingal fabric or drunkard's path and put it in the show. If you had notions that didn't pan out in time for the 4-seasons theme, or The Story Starts at Home, or Quilters' Journey, or The Fizzy Mix of Fabric & Friends, finish your piece and put it in the show.

Crazy Quilt Landscape Workshop To Be Held May 14-15

Judith Baker Montano will travel to Richland from her home in Colorado to conduct a two-day workshop that marries her two passions – photography and fiber art.

On Friday and Saturday, May 14-15, from 9 to 5 (lunch furnished) at the Benton REA on West Van Giesen, students will turn their own seascape or landscape pictures into 8.5x11 works of fiber art. They will burn, stretch, scrunch and otherwise manipulate various types of fabric for effect. They will also learn embroidery techniques appropriate for foreground, midground, and background embellishment.

Montano's career has passed through phases of painting, quilting, and crazy quilting to embellished embroidery artwork; the one constant in her fiber pieces is the presence of luscious shades of wool yarn, silk ribbon, and lace in perfectly-executed needlework.

Cost of the workshop is $175 for guild members, $195 for non-members. Reserve your spot by mailing payment and the registration form on page 6. Detailed supply lists will be emailed to participants. For more information, contact Jo Matthias, TCQG workshop chair, at Swede22nd@aol.com.

Judith Baker Montano

“Crazy Quilt Landscape”

2-Day Workshop
May 14-15, 2016 (Saturday and Sunday)

Bring one or more photos of scenery that you love, and get started turning it into a beautiful crazy Quilt. Techniques you will learn include using burned and wrinkled fabrics, smocking, embellishing, and much more. Start collecting your unique fabrics, ribbons, beads, and buttons – you are only limited by your imagination.

Judith Baker Montano lives in LaVeta, Colorado, where she conducts workshops and classes. She has written and published numerous books on crazy quilting, thread and ribbon embroidery, embellishing, and much more. To learn more about this talented artist and teacher, check out her website at www.judithbakermontano.com.

The location and supply list will be emailed to you after your registration.

COMMUNITY SERVICE BLOCK MAY-JUNE 2016

Spring Strings- Makes an 8.5-inch Square UNfinished

Create a pretty community service block--and clean out your scraps--with this Spring Strings block project.

The kits will include one 8.5" muslin square, plus a 12 1/8" navy strip, cut at 1.5" at one end and 2" at the other.

You will furnish the remaining strips. This is a great way to use up left over binding, etc. Use bright colors, cutting them from 1.5" to 2" wide. They can have an angle or be on the bias.

Sewing Instructions:

Place the navy strip from one corner to the other, right side up, on the muslin square. Place a strip from your stash, right side down, along one edge of the navy strip.

Sew 1/4th inch straight seam. Be sure the strips are each cut 1" longer than you think you will need.

Flip over and press. These will all be a bit wonky.

Continue adding strips until you have covered the corner. Make sure the corner piece is at least 1" wide.

Cover the other half of the muslin block in the same manner.

Turn the block over and carefully remove the excess fabric without cutting into the muslin.

For more information, contact Kathy Kaser at 586-7335 or kkaserco@amerion.net.

BOARD BRIEFS

March 2016

The meeting was called to order at 6:40 p.m. by President Jean Keaveney. Board Secretary Ardith Eakin took the minutes.

Treasurer's Report: Chris Cowan, Treasurer, reported that ending balances for the month of February are:

- Checking $21,762.31
- Money Market $20,008.73

In response to issues regarding prompt payment, the Board approved raising the limit requiring two signatures on Guild checks to $501.00. The Board also approved purchase of a laser printer/scanner.

Membership: Toni Jones, Membership chair, reported that the Guild has 182 members as of March 1: 149 renewals, 12 returning and 10 honorary.

AM/PM Presidents Report: Barbara Atwell asked that those who speak at Guild meetings to state their name, to assist secretaries who are taking minutes. Lois noted low attendance at the PM meeting.

Quilt Show: 2016 Show Chair, Rena Christensen reported on Show activities: a walk-through of the Convention Center, location of the main entrance, and moneybox setup. The board approved purchase of a burner phone and a Square credit card reader for show use.

Community Service: To date, about 30-35 finished CS quilts have been turned in. Chair Cyndy Underwood has purchased more batting.

Retreat: Retreat Chair Barbara Furlong asked for clarification about retreat funding. It was determined that retreats should be self-supporting--being neither a money maker nor an expense.

Workshops: Judith Baker Montano will present a workshop and AM program in May. The guild must guarantee her at least $1500 plus expenses. The workshop is limited to 20 students and will cost $175.

Meeting was adjourned at 8:30 p.m.; next board meeting will be Monday, April 11.

April 2016

The meeting was called to order at 6:33 p.m. by President Jean Keaveney. Board Secretary Ardith Eakin took the minutes.

Treasurer's Report: Chris Cowan, Treasurer, reported that ending balances for the month of March are:

- Checking $43,326.97
- Money Market $20,009.07

Quilt show expenses have not all been paid; some outstanding bills remain.

Membership: Toni reported 254 members: 198 renewals, 12 new, 17 returning and 10 honorary, with 17 more memberships to process.

Newsletter/Webmaster: Cynthia Ewer reminded the Board that newsletter deadline is April 15. The board discussed some members' requests that we provide paper copies of past newsletters. As these are available on the Web site, it was decided against responding to these requests.

Quilt Show: The 2016 Quilt Show was a success, although final financials are not yet available. Silent Auction income totaled $6733.27 with ~$350 in expenses pending; admissions totaled $12,844, and the merchant mall generated $10,146. The Board reviewed a number of suggestions for future shows.

Community Service: April's program will be a CS work session, cutting scraps into usable strips and shapes. New kits--Two-Fer Fat Quarters--will allow friends to make similar but different quilts for community service.

Programs: The position for AM Program chair is open.

Publicity: A new publicity chair is needed, as former chair Laurel Sutton has resigned the position to take on the job of 2017 Quilt Show Chair.

Retreat: Retreat Chair Barbara Furlong reported that Spring retreat is ready to go. Fall Retreat will be held October 12-16 at Cove, OR.

Meeting was adjourned at 8:40 p.m.; the next TCQG board meeting will be held Monday, May 9.
